Field Youth Coordinator Handbook

Welcome

Welcome to the Africa NYI family!

We proudly call ourselves a family because youth members in NYI, like any family, share a pledge to a common set of values.

We value young people, discipleship, mentoring, leadership, self-sustainability, partnerships stewardship, learning, and relationships. These are not just terms to us. They offer direction and help us prioritize as we endeavor to be known, to make a difference and impact for our all-encompassing culture, and we consider the convoluted yet rewarding mission of transforming the lives of our youth in Africa and the communities we serve. We are glad you have decided to join us on that mission, and we look forward to your contributions as we achieve those goals together.

Introduction

The information we have included in this handbook is necessarily brief and may be subject to change; however, all laws, rules, and resolutions from which this handbook is derived can be found in the NYI Charter.

It is important for you to get acquainted with the NYI Charter and Ministry Plans. The Ministry Plans are designed to be a guide as you lead your Field. There is no clear or specific mention of a Field Ministry Plan, whatsoever. Nevertheless, as can be seen, both District and Regional Ministry Plans give a scope of the mission you have to develop, in order to be the liaison between them (District and Region). Categories covered are Membership and Ministry Focus, Leadership, Council, Meetings, and Ministries.

The Africa NYI Regional Office makes this handbook available to all Field Youth Coordinators. Any questions regarding the content of this handbook or ministry policies should be addressed to the RYC.

From Our Africa NYI Regional Youth Ministries Coordinator,

Shaun M. Bati

AFRICA NYI REGIONAL VISION AND MISSION

VISION

The vision for NYI Africa is embodied in four values: Holistic, Mentoring, Partnerships and Self-sustainability.

Holistic

Why holistic? As the African Proverb states: Where you will sit when you are old, shows where you stood in your youth. The rationale is addressing the big picture of every young person. The reference to this, is speaking to equip the whole person; helping young people know and answer the WHO, WHAT, WHOM, WHERE and HOW. Thus, Africa NYI will look to produce youth who are able to live and lead holistically. This is not a sheer acquisition of techniques or behaviors but aligning the entirety of our intellect, emotions, spirituality, financial and character. (Proverbs 1:1-33, Phil 4:6-7, 1Timothy 6:10, Proverbs 27:10, Luke 10:27)

Mentoring

Why mentoring? As the African Proverb states: “it takes a village to raise a child”, and “I am because we are”. Youth need guidance in all forms of life, to have a shoulder to lean on is exactly what youth need as preparation for the church of today and tomorrow. Within this, a platform for giving back, sharing experience and mentoring is presented to those that have previously walked a path a young person is currently walking in. Up until the lion tells its story, the hunter will get all the praises. Being the lion for over 400 years, African identity could be said to have been lost. Anyway, what is African Identity? Because we are sons of the continent, we believe that if we are to succeed in the future, we need to know where we come from and make sure that we do not make the same mistakes that were previously done. This therefore calls for mentorship in identity. This is not limiting to my identity as an African but it delves into concepts of mentorship in identity within self (Imago Dei), within the Missio Dei and within others. With exposure to foreign culture, the youth have gone on to define themselves by what they do. Thus, identity has become something an important of mentorship for our region. As aforementioned a holistic approach to mentorship that helps identify the individual to self, God and Others. (Hebrews 13:7)

Partnerships

Why partnerships? What an old man will see while seated, a small child cannot see even standing on top of a mountain (Nigerian Proverbs). Therefore, we believe that partnership in its epitome form, is coming together of people (Connect/Tuko Pamoja), ministries, groups and many more. This then forms interdependence unity, team work, corporate and personal profits and fusion of ownership towards building a holistic church, families, nations and continent. (Amos 3:3)

Self-sustainability

Why self-sustainability? We believe Africa is deemed as a charity basket for a long time and this we see through the foreign funds invested in Africa. On the other hand, we have seen an increase in participation by Africans in the African economics. What does it mean? According to the United Nations by 2030 Africa's youth population would have increased by 42%. With that in mind, we can assume that this increase projects that more youth will be participating in their respective countries' economy. With the exponential growth in young people the church needs to be ready to accommodate the youth as the majority of their congregation. With great mentorship, and leadership, most of the churches' projects should be sponsored and supported by the youth within the church as they will have access to the economy. This will create self-sustaining churches that in-turn will support and participate in local missions. (John 15:5)

MISSION

Our mission is to connect young people to God, self, and others.

Field Youth Council Meetings

You are in charge of all the arrangement for your Field NYI Council meetings. Your Council members will be most receptive if the meetings are well conducted. Remember, this Council is composed of volunteers and you will be extremely respected if you make their time serving the Field NYI as treasured as possible.

It would be beneficial for you to acquaint yourself with parliamentary procedure. Get a copy of Roberts Rules of Orders (<https://www.fulltextarchive.com/page/Robert-s-Rules-of-Order/>) and learn the essentials in regards to motions, voting, etc.

At the beginning of each fiscal year, your council should include in their program a time of getting acquainted. If your field has written job descriptions for leadership positions, your first meeting is a good time to revisit those documents, as well as any policies set by the field. One recommendation for you, is to write a job description for those who will be part of your field council, in that way, it will be easier for them to understand what is specifically expected from them and their ministries (especially if they are new council members as well).

Below is a sample of essential members your Field Youth Council should benefit of:

- NYI Country Coordinators
- NYI District Presidents
- Assistant Field Youth Coordinator
- Admin Assistant/Secretary
- Treasurer
- Communications Coordinator
- Resources Coordinator

- Events Coordinator
- Others deemed necessary by the Field NYI Council

The following is a suggested “sample” agenda for a Council meeting:

- Welcome
- Member introductions and prayer requests
- Prayer
- Analysis of minutes from previous meeting (motion, second, vote)
- Analysis of the financial report (motion, second, vote)
- Reports of events since the last Council meeting (motion, second, vote)
 - Should include both spiritual victories and financial results
- Progress reports for events to follow
 - A proposed budget should be presented and approved (motion, second, vote)
- Reports of ministry leaders (motion, second, vote)
- of annual calendar
- Dream session
 - Always lead the Council in dreaming for new and innovative ways to reach the youth from your district.
 - Confirm date for next meeting
- AOB
- Adjournment

Accountability

As a leader, an important concept to bear in mind, is the concept of accountability. Being a team player, may not only mean working together with other people, but also being accountable to someone, and holding others accountable as well.

As a Field Youth Coordinator, you should always be in close connection with:

- Country coordinators (accountable to you)
- District NYI Presidents (accountable to you)
- District Superintendents
- The Field SDMI Coordinator
- The Field NMI Coordinator
- The Field Finance Coordinator
- The Field Strategy Coordinator (to whom you are accountable)
- The Regional Youth Coordinator (to whom you are accountable)

Finances (Budget)

As a Field Youth Coordinator, you must develop a yearly budget.

This budget shall be submitted for approval, to your Field Strategy Coordinator, Field Finance Coordinator, and Regional Youth Coordinator.

Talk to your FSC about your responsibilities, in regards to the NYI budget. Ask your Field Finance Coordinator when are the budgets’ submissions due, and meet the deadline.

Therefore, it is advisable to begin making the budget with some time in advance, in order to:

- a) Intentionally, reflect on your Field NYI priorities
- b) Write down in detail, what will be done (for coordination’s purposes and quarterly reports)
- c) Show your vision, commitment, responsibility and transparency towards your field and NYI.

The budget should be comprehensive. You should bear in mind all the plans and activities (conferences, seminars, retreats, etc.,) intended to be carried out throughout the fiscal year, in agreement with the FSC. Everything should be properly outlined and addressed with the needed financial resources.

Be always in touch with your FSC and FFC, looking for ways to raise NYI's incomes.

Finally, quarterly reports will be required, as aforementioned, thus, keep everything filed (even for reimbursement cases).

Africa NYI

Your Africa NYI office in Nairobi, Kenya exists to support the regional, Field, district, and local NYI. As a part of Africa, you will build lasting relationships with NYI leaders. The Regional NYI will help you with guidance and instructions that will aid you in leading your field to regional events such as the Africa NYC (once every four years), yearly leadership conference, but not limited to these ones.

Africa NYI sponsors an annual leadership event called Africa Nazarene Youth Leadership Conference (ANAZYLC). At ANAZYLC you will be notified and equipped to better serve your field. You should make plans to attend ANAZYLC and take all the leaders of your field along with you. This is a wonderful opportunity to network with other leaders across Africa.

Connections

The relationships you build through the Regional NYI will serve as a connective link across the fields. Always take advantage of this network by all means to improve your leadership and service skills. You will meet and hear of prospective speakers and musicians; as well as learn new and exciting ways to lead. Always be inquisitive and observant as you build these new relationships.

Documentation

Everything you do should be kept safely. Keep good records of all meetings and events, perhaps as a portfolio. Store files both electronically and as hardcopies. In the coming years, you and your successors will be grateful you took the time to preserve these documents. Upon your departure as Field Youth Coordinator, it is your responsibility to pass on to your successor all records and policies of your field NYI.

The mission of Nazarene Youth International is to call our generation to a dynamic life in Christ.

810.2 Our Members

Membership in Nazarene Youth International includes all persons participating in Nazarene youth ministry who choose to embrace our stated vision and values.

810.3 Our Vision

The Church of the Nazarene believes that young people are an integral part of the Church. Nazarene Youth International exists to lead young people into a lifelong relationship with Jesus Christ and to facilitate their growth as disciples for Christian service.

810.4 Our Values

1. We value Young People...significant in the kingdom of God.
2. We value the Bible...God's unchanging truth for our lives.
3. We value Prayer...vital interactive communication with our heavenly father.
4. We value the Church...a global holiness community of faith, diverse in culture but one in Christ.
5. We value Worship...life-changing encounters with an intimate God.
6. We value Discipleship...a lifestyle of becoming like Christ.
7. We value Community...building relationships that help bind us together and to God.
8. We value Ministry...extending God's grace to our world.
9. We value Witness...sharing God's love in word and deed.
10. We value Holiness...a work of grace whereby God, through the working of His Holy Spirit, enables us to live a life representing Christ in who we are and in everything we do.

These values are important dimensions of the holy life and are to be reflected in the life and ministry of NYI at every level of the church. (Please refer to the Articles of Faith in the Manual of the Church of the Nazarene for more information on these values.) In reflecting these values, we acknowledge the following Guiding Principles.

810.5 Our Guiding Principles

1. NYI exists for youth.

Nazarene Youth International exists to attract, equip, and empower young people for service in the kingdom of God and to facilitate their integration into the Church of the Nazarene.

2. NYI focuses on Christ.

Christ is central to who we are, the Word of God our authoritative source for all we do, and holiness our pattern for life.

3. NYI is built on relational ministry to youth in the local church.

Effective ministry to young people in the local church is critical to the health and vibrancy of NYI. Relationships and incarnational ministry form the foundation for Nazarene youth ministry, guiding young people toward spiritual maturity in Christ.

4. NYI develops and mentors young leaders.

NYI provides opportunities for emerging leaders to develop and utilize their gifts within an environment of nurture and support, assuring strong leadership for the Church of the Nazarene. Leadership training, accountability, and mechanisms for evaluation and modification of ministry are vital functions of NYI.

5. NYI is empowered to lead.

Relevant youth ministry requires that responsibility for ministry and organizational decisions reside with NYI leadership and the appropriate governing bodies at every level. A sense of belonging and ownership, a passion for service, and input in decision-making are key ingredients for the empowerment of young people through NYI.

6. NYI embraces unity and diversity in Christ.

NYI is committed to understanding and celebrating differences and diversity in language, color, race, culture, socioeconomic class, and gender. Our differences do not diminish unity but enhance our potential and effectiveness. Sharing the good news of Jesus Christ in culturally relevant ways must always be a high priority.

7. NYI creates networks and partnerships.

A climate of cooperation characterizes our relationships at every level of NYI. Networking within the church enhances the development and deployment of young people for service; NYI actively participates in such cooperative endeavors.

810. 6 Our Ministry Framework

The Nazarene Youth International Charter provides the foundation for organizing, planning, and implementing youth ministry at every level of the Church of the Nazarene. Standard ministry plans are provided that local, district, and regional NYI groups are encouraged to adapt in response to youth ministry needs in their own ministry situation. Ministry plans at every level must be consistent with the NYI Charter and the Manual of the Church of the Nazarene.

2. Local NYI officers must be members of the local church whose NYI they serve, active in local youth ministry, and leaders in personal example and service.
3. In churches not having an organized NYI (no local NYI Council), the pastor, with church board approval, may appoint the NYI president so that the church may begin to reach young people for Christ and respond to their spiritual growth needs.

810.108 Elections

2. A nominating committee nominates the officers for NYI. A Nominating Committee is appointed by the pastor and consists of NYI members, as well as the pastor and the NYI president. All nominees are to be approved by the pastor and church board. Persons nominated as local NYI president must have reached their 15th birthday at the time of their election.
3. Officers are elected by majority vote of the NYI members present at the annual NYI meeting. When there is only one nominee for a position, a “yes” and “no” ballot is used, with approval by two-thirds vote. Only those who are also members of the local Church of the Nazarene may vote for the president.

In that case, the youth pastor carries out some of the duties otherwise designated to a local NYI president. However, the importance of the NYI president remains, in providing vital lay leadership, support, and representation for local youth ministry. The pastor, youth pastor and NYI Council work together to define the roles and responsibilities of the two positions and how they work together for the benefit of the church's youth ministry.

810.112 Elections

1. A NYI Nominating Committee nominates local NYI members to be elected to the NYI Council.
2. The NYI membership then elects the members of the NYI Council from submitted nominations by majority vote at the annual NYI meeting.
3. A vacancy occurs when a council member moves his/her membership from the local NYI, resigns, or is removed from office by two-thirds vote of the council due to neglect of duties or inappropriate conduct. Should a vacancy occur among council members, the NYI Council fills the vacancy by two-thirds vote if there is one nominee or by majority vote if two or more nominees.
4. If a church has fewer than seven NYI members, the pastor may appoint the members of the NYI Council so that youth ministry may be developed and young people are reached for Christ.

810.113 Responsibilities

1. The NYI Council is responsible for planning and organizing the total ministry for youth within the local church and, through its officers and directors, initiates and directs ministries and activities to reach young people for Christ and to respond to their spiritual growth needs, in harmony with local church leadership.
2. The NYI Council defines the ministry focus of the local NYI in response to local youth ministry needs, and develops and assigns titles and job descriptions for ministry directors.
3. The NYI Council gives leadership to the youth area of Sun- day School/Bible studies/small groups by promoting growth in enrollment and attendance for youth, nominating and providing training for youth Sunday School/Bible study/small group teachers and leaders, and recommending curriculum and resources to be used, in cooperation with the Sunday School and Discipleship Ministries International Board.
4. The NYI Council cooperates with the District NYI Council in promoting district, regional, and global NYI ministries to young people of the church.
5. The NYI Council establishes and communicates the process for submitting revisions to the local ministry plan.

810.114 Committees

1. The NYI Executive Committee consists of elected NYI officers and the pastor or youth pastor. The Executive Committee may conduct the business of the NYI Council when necessary.
